WHAT DOES MEREDITH VILLAGE SAVINGS BANK (MVSB), MERRIMACK COUNTY SAVINGS BANK (the Merrimack), and MILLRIVER TRUST COMPANY (MillRiver) DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?
Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?
The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:
- Social Security number and income
- Account transactions and transaction history and account balances
- Overdraft History

How?
All financial companies need to share customers’ personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers’ personal information; the reasons MVSB, The Merrimack and MillRiver choose to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?
Meredith Village Savings Bank, Merrimack County Savings Bank, and MillRiver Trust Company. These financial institutions are affiliates for the purposes of this privacy policy.

What we do

How do MVSB, The Merrimack, and MillRiver protect my personal information?
To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

Employee access to your information is restricted to those who have a business reason to know such information.

How do MVSB, The Merrimack, and MillRiver collect my personal information?
We collect your personal information, for example, when you
- open an account or apply for a loan
- make deposits or withdrawals from your account
- enter into an investment advisory contract

Why can’t I limit all sharing?
Federal law gives you the right to limit only
- sharing for affiliates’ everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. [See below for more on your rights under state law.]

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?
Your choices will apply to everyone on your account—unless you tell us otherwise
